

Participants' 5 rights

Choice

Participants have the right to make decisions about supports.

Quality support

Supports must be high-quality, reflecting participants' needs and preferences.

Safe & ethical environment

Participants have the right to be treated well and protected from harm.

Dignity & respect

Participants' beliefs and values must be respected at all times.

Information

Participants have the right to clear, accessible information to make informed decisions.

knowmyrights.org.au

Ausmed

Funded by the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission Grants Program

NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission